Dawn Fennewald, Acting Secretary

Kachina Kennel Club General Meeting March 20, 2018

President Marilyn Casiano called the meeting to order at 7:01PM.

Marilyn Pauley moved and Lucille Hathcock seconded that the minutes of the previous meeting be accepted as printed. The motion passed.

President, No Report

Vice President, Recording and Corresponding Secretary were absent.

The Treasurer, Dawn Fennewald gave a complete accounting for checking and savings and cluster accounts, Marilyn Pauley moved and Dean Doty seconded the treasurer report be approved. Motion carried. Dawn also stated that the KKC Annual Dues are Due by May 1, 2018.

Show Chairman, Dawn Fennewald stated that the rent of the Prescott Valley Event Center increased by $200.00/day due to the increase in cost of utilities and and wage increase for persons working such as security etc. The cost for the set up days also increased by $150.00/day. Dawn also mentioned that we still need for volunteers for show set-up and day of show jobs. Such as driving golf carts for transporting Judges back and forth to the show site or their hotel. Grounds crew that will drive golf carts to police the grounds and keep the trash containers usable, etc. Stephanie Clark will take on the Raffle at the Show, but is looking for some other volunteers to help with this too. The Judges Slate is in and approved for 2018 and we almost have the 2019 completed as well. Dawn showed the attending members 5 different possible Copper Classic logo's and asked the attending members to select the one they wanted. The logo that was unanimously selected was the picture of the mining cart with the dogs entering the mine. This information will be taken to the next Cluster Show meeting hopefully they will also come up with the same conclusion.

We will offer the "PeeWee" Event as well as Best Puppy and/or Best Brace at our show. Plus Trick Dog testing on Saturday/Sunday by Sheila Hanna. The Health clinics that will also be there are; Heart (confirmed), Eyes (Probably) and Ophgen (Possibly).

Match Chairman - No Report

Program Chair. Marilyn C stated that Louise Neal has asked that she be removed from this position. She is faced with eye problems and shouldn't drive at night. Marilyn C stated that the position will remain vacant for the time being, and if anyone hears or finds a topic that they think would be good for a program bring it to the Board.

Membership Chair. Lucille Hathcock read the 3rd reading for Heather Aguilar. Stephanie Clark made a motion to accept Heather as a new member. Dawn Fennewald 2nd and the motion carried.

Other Committees, Marilyn Pauley stated that as the Chairperson of the nominating committee that she was presenting the 2018 Slate as:
